AND

HEATHER LINES

JOHN G BEDNARZ

UNDER ADVISEMENT RULING

This matter having been under advisement,

IT IS ORDERED as follows:

THE COURT FINDS that the most appropriate schedule for the substantially equal parenting plan, as previously ordered by the Court, is Father's plan as submitted to the Court with a slight modification. Mother shall receive one additional day each month in addition to Father's "days in black." It shall be the first day of each month that he is scheduled currently to have Hannah in his custody. As to the holiday schedule, the schedule is already written into the Decree which the Court entered on March 29, 2006.

Each parent shall have a 30-minute grace period for picking up the minor child. Should they fail to appear at the designated location within 30 minutes, that parenting time day shall be lost and their next parenting time day shall be according to the calendar. Neither party will be charged if there is an emergency situation which causes them to be late. In the event that an emergency is occurring, they have a requirement to notify the other party within 30 minutes of the pick up time as to the exact nature of the emergency and their estimated arrival time. Exchanges will continue at the Gilbert Police Department.
